We can't keep it,
it's a wild animal.

Kiki can't survive on her own, she needs a home.

Granny!
Don't name her!!

Granny!

A dog!

Here, puppy!

Kiki is a wolf.

Can we play with her?

I don't think that's-

Of course you can.

Have fun.

...

I'm home.

Granny?

Oh.

Look at you,

You've grown up quick, little wolf.

You'll probably start a family soon somewhere...

It's just me and Grandma here.

I'm sure you could go somewhere far away, and we would never find you...

I cannot believe you let that thing
near my daughter.

*Mum! I'm okay!
We were just playing around!*

I'm sorry-

No!

I have had it with your idiotic whims. Stop acting like a spoiled kid that can get away with anything!

I'm sorry...
I swear I won't let
it happen again.

These things happen, Rue.
And don't you listen to her.

...

You're doing a great job in this household.

I'm home.

Hi, Kiki.

...Granny?

Where did you go this time?

Kiki,

do you know where she is?

Hey, wait!

Kiki?

Granny!

Please,

TELL me when you wander off like this!!

Well, you've found me now.

Rue...

You work so hard
for us, but take care of yourself, too.

I thought we could watch the
sunset again,

just like we used to.

...You didn't have to come all the way here though.

Here has the best view.

I guess...

Thank you for reading my comic :)

I wanted to write a story about humans and wolves living together. Wolves do not follow people like dogs do, though! And the relationship between humans and wolves is not a happy one in reality :/

Hopefully, there will come a time when humans and wolves can coexist, and live in harmony.

Thanks again, and please look forward to my next work ;)
